Terms and conditions of the "Early Bird" and "Bring a Friend" campaigns

Early Bird terms and conditions for the April 2026 programme starts:

Participants in the "Early Bird" campaign receive the following discount on their tuition fees:

- Participants in the study programs „Logistics Management (MBA)" and „Clinical Reasearch (M.Sc.) will have one month's fee waived, specifically the last month's fee. The discount is indicated accordingly in the payment plan.
- Participants in the study programs „Notfallsanitäter (B.Sc.)" und „Physiotherapie (B.Sc.)" will have two monthly fees waived, specifically the last two monthly fees. The discount is indicated accordingly in the payment plan.

The discount promotion applies to applications for one of the above-mentioned study programs starting in the summer semester 2026, provided that the complete application documents have been received by DIU by 15.12.2025 and the signed study contract has been received by DIU within 2 weeks. In the event of premature termination of studies due to the cancellation of the study contract, the entitlement to the discount expires.

Terms and conditions "Bring a Friend"

Students and applicants with an existing DIU study contract who refer other students will receive a credit note in the amount of one month's tuition fee of the referring person's study program.
The payment will be made to the referring person, provided that the referred person has signed the contract for a Master's or Bachelor's degree program starting in the summer or winter semester 2026 and the objection period has expired. Furthermore, the referring person must not be in arrears with payments to DIU. Participation in the "Bring a Friend" campaign is registered by sending an e-mail to studyadvisory@di-uni.de in which the participant states who they have referred. The recruited person must state in their application who referred them.
